

Wildcat track shows improvement at Red Bud Classic in Wellsville

Louisburg senior Emma Vohs hands the baton off to Adelyn Moore during the 4×800-meter relay earlier this season.

WELLSVILLE – There were no school records broken or big time performances, but both Louisburg track and field teams saw improvements Friday at the Red Bud Classic in Wellsville.

The boys finished fifth in the team standings with 58 points and the girls were sixth with 50 points. The girls won a pair of events, while the boys were shut out of the gold medals.

“We continue to improve across the board,” Louisburg girls coach John Reece said. "The throws crew and jumpers are doing a great job and continue to move up in placings which really help out the team points. With league coming up, we will get a great perspective of what our regional will be like."

Senior Maddy Carpenter-Ross won another pole vault competition for the Lady Cats as she tied her own school record with a vault of 11-6 to win by a foot.

On the track, the girls also scored several points in the sprints and it started with Suzanna Dansel. The Louisburg sophomore won the 100-meter dash in 12.73 seconds.

Dansel then joined Kendall Crossley, Addi Mallett and Emma Vohs as they finished second in the 4×100-meter relay in 51.40 seconds.

On the boys side, junior Cooper Wingfield had the best finish of the day for the Wildcats. Wingfield was second in the pole vault after he cleared 14 feet.

"For the second week in a row we had tough competition, and for the most part we competed, we are just a little dinged up,” Louisburg boys coach Andy Wright said. “Right now we are focusing on getting healthier, and preparing for league and regionals.”

Junior Gavin Lohse had a solid day on the track for the Wildcats as he scored in three events. Lohse was third in the long jump with a mark of 21-10.
