Week 2 Athlete of the Week: Noah Sharp

Here is the Louisburg Sports Zone Athlete of the Week for week two of the winter sports season, sponsored by IronHorse Family and Cosmetic Dentistry.

NOAH SHARP, JUNIOR, SWIMMING

Louisburg junior Noah Sharp put together a strong start to his 2025-26 swim season. At the Topeka-Hayden Invitational on Dec. 10, Sharp qualified for state in two different events – the 50-yard freestyle and the 100 butterfly. Sharp won the 50 freestyle in a personal best time of 22.82 seconds and helped the Osawatomie-Paola-Louisburg-Spring Hill boys swim team to a second place finish in the 9-team meet.

Sharp also went on to finish runner-up in the 100 butterfly in a new personal best time of 57.54 seconds. Sharp, along with teammates Colin Brown, Bennett Mendez and Landen Terflinger took second in the 200 medley relay. Sharp also joined with Mendez, Tag Solberg and Philip Hebert to finish runner-up in the 200 freestyle relay.

The athlete of the week award is announced every Wednesday morning during the winter season and the winner is selected by Louisburg Sports Zone with the help of nominations from coaches.

Previous Winners:

Week 1: Herschel Strumberger

